

Pass-Off Order

What order do you pass things off?

1. EE 2000 – Book 1 (start with line 11 and continue through Bonus Track – New Spirit March)
2. EE 2000 – Book 2 (Lines 1-186)
3. Accent on Achievement Book 2 (Lines 1-111)
4. Scales
 - Exercises
 - a. Scales
 - b. Major
 - c. Quarter Note
 - d. 20 (You must play in all the keys listed. When you go to save your score, please save it as your name and the type of scale and the key that you played. For example, Mike Doll, B-flat major)
 - Exercises
 - a. Scales
 - b. Natural Minor
 - c. Quarter Note
 - d. 120 (You must play in all the keys listed. When you go to save your score, please save it as your name and the type of scale and the key that you played. For example, Mike Doll, A Natural Minor)
 - Exercises
 - a. Scales
 - b. Harmonic Minor
 - c. Quarter Note
 - d. 220 (You must play in all the keys listed. When you go to save your score, please save it as your name and the type of scale and the key that you played. For example, Mike Doll, E-flat Harmonic Minor)
 - Exercises
 - a. Scales
 - b. Melodic Minor
 - c. Quarter Note
 - d. 320 (You must play in all the keys listed. When you go to save your score, please save it as your name and the type of scale and the key that you played. For example, Mike Doll, F-sharp Melodic Minor)
5. Play By Ear
 - a. Exercises
 - b. Play By Ear
 - c. Ear Development Exercises
 - d. Group 1 (8000-8019)
6. Play By Ear
 - a. Exercises
 - b. Play By Ear
 - c. Ear Development Exercises
 - d. Group 2 (8050-8069)
7. Standard of Excellence Book 1
8. Accent on Achievement Book 1
9. Play By Ear
 - a. Exercises
 - b. Play By Ear
 - c. Ear Development Exercises
 - d. Group 3(8100-8119)

= level 1 musician

= level 2 musician

= level 3 musician

= level 4 musician